Chapter 1 by grimulkin

the day started off fine I got up made my breakfast and headed for school it was bright out for about a second then darkness complete pitch darkness I was terrified the sun was no more how?,why?, I thought then in a split second lights on but inside a white room "you had another blackout james" came a recognizable voice "hi doctor brown" I said "your moms waiting in the office go see her" "ok" I reply I walked into the office my mom was sitting there she sat up "come on" she says "lets go home the doctor said you need some rest that was the 6th time this week" "a new record" I said we walked into the parking lot got in our red sedan and drove home in silence we got home I went in my room and dozed away

I woke up in restraints big elongated heads with huge green bulbus eyes stared at me 8 inch syringes filled with a strange blue liquid flecked with gold dots were held in each of the creatures long fingered red hands as their bodies were green with a tint of purple they stuck a syringe in my torso i blacked out and woke up in my bed breathing heavily and sweating it was dark in my small room mom! I called there was no reply then i realized this wasn't my room...
